DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 2-8, 10 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Eichmann 5,845,832.

Eichmann teaches a vehicle mounted cargo carrier comprising a mounting arm 32, a swing arm 38, 42, a base 46, article carriers 54, 55, 58, 59, pivotal connections comprising pivot pins, clevis, socket and stub shafts, 36, 40, 44, 52, a mounting lug 26, a first pin 41, and a second pin 68.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 3 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Eichmann 5,845,832 in view of Clayton 5,439,151.

Eichmann teaches the claimed invention as noted above except that Eichmann does not specifically mention a watertight cargo compartment as an article to be carried by his carrier and does not teach an alternative arrangement for attaching his carrier to a vehicle comprising two mounting bars. Clayton teaches that it is old and well known in the art to attach a watertight cargo compartment 10 to the carrier portion of a vehicle mounted cargo carrier and also teaches that in some instances a second mounting bar is needed to attach the cargo carrier to certain vehicles (see figure 11). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to attach the watertight cargo compartment of Clayton to the article carrier of Eichmann since this is old and well known in the art and Eichmann specifically states in column 3 lines 52-55 that his carrier is adaptable to a wide variety of cargo to be carried. It further would have been obvious to modify the cargo carrier of Eichmann to include two mounting bars so that the carrier could be applied to a wider variety of vehicles.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
